28 February 2012

Before TEDActive sessions begin, Monday's TEDActive-ists signed up for a slate of pre-conference sessions and fun. See more photos on TEDActive's daily photo album.

Everyone's an Architect Workshop Hosted by the TEDActive Progressive Ideas Project: Artist Kiel Johnson poses for the camera in front of the TEDActive city made entirely of cardboard. Over the next 4 days the city will grow with the help of attendee participation.
